ODD FELLOWS' CELEBRATION .- Last Friday the brethren of the Order turned out in procession, in commemoration of the Eleventh Anniversary of Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2. The number of members of on Lieutenant Maury's improvement in navigation. the Lodge in procession was very respectable, and the display was much heightened by the presence of the Grand Lodge which participated in the celebration, the tariff. as did also the Clarendon Lodge. The Amateur Brass Band enlivened the occasion with music, and the effect of the melancholy beat of the dram while passing the State Bank, lately the residence of a defully impressive.

Washington, the orator of the day, who gave a clear and sensible exposition of the necessities which called for the institution of such an Order, and of the principles of benevolence and charity, upon which its existence is based, rising at times into eloquence and pathos, when dwelling upon the beauties of benevolence, or portraging the miseries also very creditably gotten up; and those in charge of that department, deserve the thanks of the breth-

A Four-Legged Chicken.

Sometime since, in the dearth of anything strange or remarkable, we were led to wish even for a fourlegged chicken, or something of that kind; and, as if " critter" is before us, and on our table as we write, a veritable, four-legged chicken, hatched out this (Thursday) morning. The little fellow, we regret to say, is dead, although hardly yet cold, having survived an hour or an hour and a half after his escape from the shell.

This strange affair was sent over to our office by Mr. McLaurin, of the Cape Fear Bank, and is a veritable curiosity. Its front pair of legs are pretty nearly where other chickens carry the same, or per haps a little forward of the exact location, and the hind pair sprout out very nearly where the tail usually unfolds itself. Both pairs are as perfectly developed as any chichen's trotters, and about the same thickness and nearly the same length. Its wings are, nautically speaking, nearer to the forecastle, and his hind legs to the poop than is usual His forc legs are about midships. But he -- or she-is gone to the land of spirits; that is to say, Dr. Harris is going to put him in alchohol for preservation. Pity he died without having a chance to try his locomotive powers! Who knows but that a new race might have sprung up, with four legs, which would have been a great acquisition to persons, who, like us, are fond of drum-sticks?

Extract of a letter received from S. J. Carroll.

BALTIMORE, January 10th, 1851. WM. H. LIPPITT, Esq., -Dear Sir:-I have no hesitation in | mending them." saying that your Specific is one of the best Medicines extant for Dysentery, Diarrhaa, &c. You possibly may recollect my case; if it has escaped your memory I will give you briefly the facts. I had tried every thing that I had seen used, but with little success. And after using enough to channels of affection, so that henceforth the "course of true love may run smooth."

Start twenty-nive Homeopathic M. D. 3, 1 segand when you kindly offered me your invaluable Medicine, which cured me effectually.

Yours truly,

J. S. CARROLL.

WM. H. LIPPITT, Esq.—

Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure I state that I have used your Specific for the cure of Dysentery, Diarrhœa, &c., and have found it to produce the desired effect in every case I used it, after the usual remedies have failed. I recommend it with confidence to the public. Respectfully, &c.,

SAVANNAH, Ga., December 26th, 1851.-MR. WM. H. LIP-PITT,-Dear Sir :- It is with pleasure I acknowledge the wonis not very remote. A new journal, published at derful effects of your Medicine for curing Diarrhea or Bowel Providence, R. I., called "The Una," and devoted complaint, as I am satisfied it was the means, under God, of saving the life, first of my Child and then of my Brother .-Asmy Brother was given up by two of the most eminent Phyand ingenious "Apology for Aspasia," the celebrated Greek Courtesan! What is to come next, can only be conjectured. Probably an essay in extenuation of the conduct of Herodias,—or a poem in untried, but he did not think that Medicine would be of any praise of Jezebel,—or a eulogy on Delilah—or a vindication of Potiphar's wife! With such exemplars be out of bed. I remain yours, very truly and gratefully.
